IN FUTURE UNDER THE STANLEY BRAND

Wolf-Garten divests itself of power tools

06.09.2024

The German manufacturer Wolf-Garten is divesting its power tools and will focus on hand tools, fertilisers and seeds in future. In future, the power tool range will be sold in the classic yellow colour of the Stanley brand. This was announced by Stanley Black & Decker at a press event in Saarbrücken (Germany), where Wolf-Garten is based.
