Creamy/White Limestone

Countervailing duties on Creamy/White Limestone from Portugal

Note to public file

1st July 2026

Business survey

We are conducting an online survey to gather the perspectives of downstream businesses on the countervailing duties on Creamy/White Limestone from Portugal.

The survey will be open from 1st July 2026 to 31st July 2026 and can be accessed here.

The evidence submitted via the survey will only be used for the Economic Interest Test and will not be used to assess dumping, injury or causation. We may get in touch if we need to clarify any information or publish any evidence provided.

This survey should not be completed by exporters or UK producers. These parties should instead contact AS0079@traderemedies.gov.uk.

Our final reports for this investigation will be published on our public file.

We use Qualtrics to deliver our surveys. For more information, please see their privacy statement.

Privacy Notice

Purpose and lawful basis for processing

Our purpose for processing your personal data is to seek your views on the effects that imposing tariffs on Creamy/White Limestone could have on UK industries.

The lawful basis we are relying on to process your personal data is article 6(1)(e) of the UK GDPR. This allows us to process personal data when this is necessary for the performance of our public task of conducting investigations into the possible need for trade remedies to be applied.

What we need

If you are responding to our survey on behalf of a business we will ask for your name, contact details and the name of the organisation that you work for. For both businesses and consumers, we will collect IP addresses to help us to identify the location of responses. We will also process any other personal data you choose to provide in your response.

What we do with it

For business responses, we will use your name and contact details to contact you if we have any questions about your response.

Information submitted will be used anonymously for the Economic Interest Test (EIT).

How long we keep it

We'll destroy IP addresses, names and contact details provided once the investigation has concluded. Where you have included personal data within any narrative responses to the survey, we will keep your personal data in accordance with section 5.2 of the TRA's terms of use and privacy notice, available here.

What are your rights?

For information on your rights, please see your rights.

If you are unhappy with the way in which we have processed your personal data, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office, as the UK supervisory authority.

Do we use any data processors?

Yes - we use Qualtrics to gather the responses. You can read their Privacy Statement here.
