

Trade Remedies
Authority

Investigations No. IR0093 – Ceramic
Tableware and Kitchenware from China - Partial Interim Review

Ceramic Tableware and Kitchenware from the People's Republic of China:
Partial Interim Review

Note to public file

3 September 2026

Business and consumer survey

We are conducting an online survey to gather views from businesses and household consumers on the potential impacts of any future anti-dumping and countervailing measures on Ceramic Tableware and Kitchenware (CT&K) from the People's Republic of China.

The survey will be open from Thursday, 3rd September 2026 to Monday, 5th October 2026 and can be accessed here.

The evidence submitted via the survey will only be used for the Economic Interest Test and will not be used to assess dumping, injury or causation. Information submitted will be stored confidentially by the TRA and the TRA will only publish a summary of responses. We will not undertake a formal verification process for information gathered from this survey, however businesses may be contacted if we need to clarify any information or publish any evidence provided.

This survey should not be completed by exporters, importers or UK producers. These parties should instead complete a questionnaire and upload to the Trade Remedies Service. Questionnaires are more detailed and so will allow these parties to submit information relating to other parts of the investigation.

Our preliminary and final reports for this investigation will be published on our public files, IR0093.

We use Qualtrics to deliver our surveys. For more information, please see their privacy statement.

Privacy Notice

Purpose and lawful basis for processing

Our purpose for processing your personal data is to gather your views on the potential impacts that imposing tariffs on CT&K could have on UK industries and businesses.

The lawful basis we are relying on to process your personal data is article 6(1)(e) of the UK GDPR. This allows us to process personal data when this is necessary for the performance of our public task of conducting investigations into the possible need for trade remedies to be applied.

What we need

If you are responding to our survey on behalf of a business we will ask for your name, contact details and the name of the organisation that you work for. We will collect IP addresses of businesses to help us to identify the location of responses. We will also process any other personal data you choose to provide in your response.

What we do with it

For business responses, we will use your name and contact details to contact you if we have any questions about your response.

Information submitted will be used anonymously for the Economic Interest Test (EIT).

How long we keep it

We'll destroy IP addresses, names and contact details provided once the investigation has concluded. Where you have included personal data within any narrative responses to the survey, we will keep your personal data in accordance with section 5.2 of the TRA's terms of use and privacy notice, available here.

What are your rights?

For information on your rights, please see your rights.

If you are unhappy with the way in which we have processed your personal data, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office, as the UK supervisory authority.

Do we use any data processors?

Yes - we use Qualtrics to gather the responses. You can read their Privacy Statement here.