

Phillips 66 has been operating in the UK for over 65 years and we are as excited about our future as we are proud of our past.

Providing Energy. Improving Lives.

We are excited about the future of energy. Our advantaged and nimble company is full of seasoned leadership and talented teams making responsible choices to adapt and explore the opportunities the changing market brings.

We do this while living out our values of safety, honour and commitment; improving lives by providing access to the energy which is essential to a high standard of living and health throughout the UK and the world.

Our employees, suppliers and partners share this vision to provide energy and improve lives. Our hard work, and team work, keeps energy flowing.

Phillips 66 Limited is a wholly owned subsidiary of Phillips 66, with a focus on refining, commercial and marketing operations.

FIND OUT MORE

Guided by our core values of safety, honour and commitment, we work to meet the UK's energy needs today and tomorrow.