Case AD0047

Certain Excavators exported from the People's Republic of China

Notification of sampling approach for third country producers

As per our consultation notice published on 20 February 2024, the TRA invited producers in Brazil to participate in the investigation by registering to the case.

Due to the small number of responses in the registration period, the Trade Remedies Authority (TRA) will not limit its examination at this stage.

Further information

Our Trade Remedies Guidance provides more information about the investigations process, including information about sampling and limited examination.
