Carbon Black Industry Network According to the news from Tire World Network, recently, Shanghai Huayi Group (Thailand) Co., Ltd. issued a tender announcement. The company intends to purchase TBR three-drum building machines for its tire expansion project. After the expansion is completed, it can produce 1 million tires annually.

The announcement shows that the bidding unit must have relevant qualifications, a good reputation; the registered capital of the bidding unit must be greater than or equal to 20 million yuan. The deadline for submission of tender documents is December 26, 2022. Consortium bids are allowed for this project.

After the contract is signed, the delivery is required within 5 months, and the installation and commissioning work will be completed within 45 days of arrival.

According to the data, Huayi Thailand Company was jointly established by Shanghai Huayi Group and Thai enterprises. The two parties invested about 2 billion yuan to build a factory with an annual production capacity of 1.8 million truck and bus tires and 50,000 engineering tires. The factory was put into production in 2017, and the products are mainly exported to the US market.
