On June 9 , more than 40 Cambodian employees of General Tire Technology (Cambodia) Co., Ltd., led by the company's general manager Tao Guozhong, visited the West Hong Kong Special Economic Zone Achievement Exhibition for the 10th anniversary of the joint construction of the "Belt and Road" initiative, and felt and understood Siha The development of the Nuuk Port Special Economic Zone has undergone tremendous changes and fruitful development in the past 15 years.

Li Sen , a Cambodian employee, was deeply touched after visiting the fruit exhibition. Li Sen lives in Tebun Khmong Province. Because he often reads news about the Sihanoukville Special Economic Zone on the Internet, he is very yearning for the special zone, so he embarked on the road of job hunting in the Sihanoukville Special Economic Zone. Li Sen said happily that it is precisely because of the vigorous development of the special zone, which has continuously attracted enterprises to settle in and created many jobs for the local area, that he can quickly find a job that suits him. Now Li Sen works as a translator at General Tire Technology (Cambodia) Co., Ltd., and his income has increased a lot compared to before. In addition, Li Sen usually teaches other Cambodian employees in the company to learn Chinese, so that everyone can learn from each other and make progress together. After visiting the fruit exhibition, Li Sen realized that nothing can be achieved overnight. Just like the fruitful achievements in the development of the Sihanoukville Special Economic Zone, it needs to be done step by step and down-to-earth. In his future work, he will continue to work hard to improve his ability and strive to contribute to the development of the company and the special zone.

Yang Yali, a translator of the safety department of General Tire Technology (Cambodia) Co., Ltd., her smile is as impressive as the bright smiling faces on the smiling face wall in the achievement exhibition hall. Yang Yali's home is in Sihanoukville Province, so she has a deeper understanding of the dramatic changes in the development of the Sihanoukville Special Economic Zone. She said that the vigorous development of the SAR has brought about earth-shaking changes in the lives of local people, and she herself is one of the beneficiaries. She is very grateful to Sihanoukville Special Economic Zone Company for building a special economic zone with complete infrastructure and a good living and working atmosphere, so that she can work, live and study in the special zone with peace of mind. She is also very grateful for the work given by General Tire Technology (Cambodia) Co. , Ltd. Opportunity, she is very satisfied with her current job, and her income has increased a lot compared to before. Yang Yali firmly believes that through her own hard work, living standards will be further improved.

Despite the wind and rain, we will work tirelessly and forge ahead. Tao Guozhong praised the tremendous changes in the development of Sihanoukville Special Economic Zone in the past 15 years. He said that the Sihanoukville Special Economic Zone has created a good business environment for the development of enterprises, which not only boosted the growth of enterprises, but also became a strong backing for enterprises. He said that up to now, the company has recruited a total of ten batches of Cambodian employees, with a total of about 240 people. The 40 Cambodian employees who came to visit and study today are the sixth and seventh batches of employees recruited by the company. He believes that this visit is very necessary. Through learning, the employees have a deeper understanding of the development process of the Sihanoukville Special Economic Zone, and at the same time further stimulated their pride in the development achievements of the special zone. In the next fifteen years, General Tire Technology (Cambodia) Co., Ltd. will join hands with all employees to establish a new starting point, move forward side by side with the Sihanoukville Special Economic Zone, and create new brilliance together.
