Director Yin Guowen and his party first came to Linglong's booth, and they were very proud to see their hometown enterprises take root and develop in Thailand. Afterwards, Director Yin accompanied Ms. Nisapwiraben, Director of the Market and Trade Development Bureau of the Department of International Trade Promotion, Ministry of Commerce of Thailand, and her team to the Yantai exhibition area. Ms. Nisapwirabon said that she has been paying close attention to the development of Linglong in Thailand for a long time. The rapid development of Linglong in Thailand shows that Chinese companies have strong internationalization capabilities. Linglong is an excellent representative of Chinese companies investing in Thailand.

As one of the largest and most invested Chinese-funded manufacturing companies in Thailand, Linglong Thailand has established a good reputation with strict corporate management and high-quality product quality; actively fulfilling social responsibilities, its pioneering, innovative, honest, and inclusive entrepreneurial spirit has been appreciated by the local government and the public, and has made outstanding contributions to promoting economic and cultural exchanges between the two countries. In this regard, Ms. Nisapwiraben has high hopes for Linglong, and hopes that the company will make further progress in the new environment and new situation, and make new and greater contributions to the regional economic development of Thailand!

Symposium

When Director Yin Guowen and his party visited Linglong Industrial Park in Thailand, they highly appreciated the company's intelligent digital factory, advanced production equipment, and mid-to-high-end products. Director Yin said that Linglong Tire is an outstanding representative of domestic tire companies and a leading enterprise in Yantai City. The company actively strengthens economic and trade cooperation with ASEAN countries, invests and builds factories in Thailand to promote local economic development, and conducts a series of active local activities such as serving and helping community development, donating to disaster-stricken areas, and setting a model for overseas factory building. This is the pride of Chinese companies, and it is also the pride of Yantai people!

During the exchange discussion between the two parties, Linglong said that with the strong support of national policies and the care and love of the Yantai government, the company will participate more in regional economic cooperation, increase the network layout of the ASEAN market, and strengthen foreign sales and service support. At the same time, continue to inspect the site selection of the other two overseas factories, complete Linglong's international strategic layout as soon as possible, and enhance the company's international market competitiveness.
