

[All data redacted – commercially sensitive information]

Statement of reasons' - the information provided in the confidential version of our submission contains highly commercially sensitive data. Public disclosure of this information would reveal detailed insights into our business and commercial arrangements, which would provide our competitors with a significant and unfair advantage in ways that could harm our competitive position.