

The freight data used was provided by the logistics department of a complainant and is based on proprietary collection and analysis of the freight data. Therefore, the provided data was ranged to protect confidentiality (ranges available in the dumping margin calculation).