

Reasoning for non-disclosure for TRA

After consulting the competent authorities in Switzerland, the Embassy is of the view that it is not in the interest of Switzerland and the UK that this diplomatic note is made public.

The non-confidential questionnaire already includes a sufficient summary in Switzerland's view:

Switzerland has systemic as well as specific interests regarding the UK safeguard measures on certain steel products and their impact on bilateral trade.