

NOTICE OF INITIATION

TRANSITION REVIEW No. TD0034

Anti-dumping duties on steel ropes and cables originating in the People's Republic of China (including steel ropes and cables consigned from Morocco and the Republic of Korea)

Initiation of a Transition Review of Anti-Dumping Measures

The Trade Remedies Authority (the TRA) makes the following Notice under regulation 98 of the Trade Remedies (Dumping and Subsidisation) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 (the Regulations) to initiate a transition review of a UK trade remedies measure.

The relevant UK measure is set out in the Secretary of State for International Trade's Taxation Notice number 2020/21 which gives effect to the EU trade remedies measures specified in the Notice of Determination 2020/21.

The date of initiation of the review is 30 March 2023.

Description of goods subject to review

Steel ropes and cables including locked coil ropes, excluding ropes and cables of stainless steel, with a maximum cross-sectional dimension exceeding 3mm.

¹ As set out in the UK Global Tariff.

Exporting countries

The People's Republic of China, including consignments from, whether or not declared as originating in, Morocco or the Republic of Korea.

Summary of the issues involved in the review

The matters we will consider during the review will include, but will not necessarily be limited to:

- whether the dumping of the goods subject to review would be likely to continue or recur if the anti-dumping amount were no longer applied to those goods; and
- whether injury to the UK industry in the relevant goods would be likely to continue or recur if the anti-dumping amount were no longer applied to those goods.

Period of investigation

The period of investigation is 1 January 2022 – 31 December 2022. In order to assess injury, we will examine the period from 1 January 2019 – 31 December 2022.

Summary of the review process

The review will involve the following process:

- inviting parties to register their interest in the review;
- issuing questionnaires, where practicable, to:
 - overseas exporters or importers of the goods subject to review;
 - overseas producers of the goods subject to review;
 - any trade or business association of overseas producers, overseas exporters or importers of the goods subject to review;
 - UK producers of like goods;
 - any trade or business association of UK producers of like goods; and

- any other party (including interested parties - other than the government of the foreign country or territory - and contributors) that has registered an interest in the review.
- verification, where appropriate, to further assess and examine information;
- analysing information gathered; and
- publication of a Statement of Essential Facts. On publication, we will set a period of time, which will be no longer than 30 days, during which parties will be able to comment on the Statement of Essential Facts and we will then make our recommendation to the Secretary of State for International Trade.

Interested parties may include:

- the Governments of the People's Republic of China, Morocco and Republic of Korea;
- any overseas exporter or importer of the goods subject to review;
- any overseas producer of the goods subject to review
- any trade or business association of producers, overseas exporters or importers of the goods subject to review;
- any producer of the like goods in the United Kingdom; and
- any trade or business association of UK producers of the like goods.

Like goods are goods that are like the goods subject to review in all respects or, if there are no such goods, goods that have characteristics closely resembling the goods subject to review.

Contributors are those, other than interested parties, who have notified us that they would like to participate in the review.

Hearings

Interested parties can request a hearing by using the Trade Remedies Service at <https://www.trade-remedies.service.gov.uk/>.

For further information about hearings during a transition review, please see our Meetings, Hearings and Visits Guidance.

Registration period

Anyone who wants to participate in the review is invited to contact us by 17 April 2023. You can register your interest through the Trade Remedies Service at:

<https://www.trade-remedies.service.gov.uk/>

Please contact TD0034@traderemedies.gov.uk if you have any difficulties using this service.

Anyone registering their interest after the registration period may not be able to participate fully in the review process.

Other comments

Once registered, interested parties and contributors can submit comments on any issues relevant to the review through the Trade Remedies Service.

Information provided during the review may be treated as confidential. Anyone requesting that information be treated as confidential must demonstrate why, and provide:

- a non-confidential summary of that information; or
- where that is not possible, a statement of reasons explaining why the information should be treated as confidential, and why it cannot be summarised.

Further information

Our Trade Remedies Guidance provides more information about the transition review process, including submitting and summarising confidential information.
