

Annex B.6.6

Invoice concerning a raw material used in the manufacture of an optical fibre cable

This is confidential business information which is not susceptible to a meaningful summary. This information is not public and would provide competitors a significant competitive advantage if this information were to be disclosed.